DIVISION MEMORANDUM

No. 602 s. 2023

DEPLOYMENT OF NURSES

To: Public Schools District Supervisors/Districts In-Charge
Elem. and Sec. School Principals, School Heads/SICs
School Health Personnel
All Others Concerned

1. In the implementation of the Interim District from 23 to 34, there are changes in the assignment of health personnel to cater learners, teaching and non-teaching personnel equally and to provide health care services to districts without assigned health personnel.
2. Health personnel are allowed to visit schools including National High Schools, Senior High Schools, and IUS within the district to conduct health services as: height and weight measurement (nutritional status), conduct physical assessment and treatment, render health talks, and monitor "OK sa DepEd Program implementation (SBFP, WinS, NDEP, ARH, MDN Services and Mental Health).
3. Nurses assigned at the Division Office will have a cluster district to monitor and evaluate the healthy learning institution and submission of reports, provide technical assistance, and handle the OK sa DepEd programs' coordinatorship.
4. Attached is the list of health personnel, their station/area of assigned District.
5. The deployment shall take effect upon the approval of the COMELEC. Hence, the Health Personnel concerned who will be transferred to other station are advised to work out their clearance while waiting for the said approval.
6. For information and guidance.
