BUREAU OF ALTERNATIVE LEARNING SYSTEM

GUIDELINES FOR THE 2015 NATIONAL COMPETITION FOR ALTERNATIVE LEARNING SYSTEM (ALS) LEARNING FACILITATORS ON THE DEVELOPMENT OF INFORMATION, EDUCATION (IEC) AND COMMUNICATION MATERIALS FOR THE ALTERNATIVE LEARNING SYSTEM

Millions of out-of-school children, youth, and adults in the Philippines are still yet to be reached and be provided with equitable learning opportunities through the Alternative Learning System in line with the inclusive education initiative of the Department of Education. In order to reach the said target learners, various advocacy and communication activities are being organized and implemented by ALS implementers at the local level. Availability of relevant and effective advocacy and communication tools are crucial in the realization of this goal. Since the participation of the primemovers in the field is of great importance, conduct of a National Competition for ALS learning facilitators on the Development of Advocacy and Communication Materials for the Alternative Learning System is hereby initiated with the following objectives:

1. To come up with a pool of up-to-date and relevant information, education and communication materials, both print and non-print for the advocacy of ALS in order to reach the target learners and provide them with quality alternative education
2. To hone and recognize the skills and talents of ALS learning facilitators on the development and production of ALS advocacy and communication materials
