OBJECTIVES

The Search for Outstanding Teacher, Master Teacher, Head Teacher, Principal and Public Schools District Supervisor and Education Program Supervisor is an annual exercise to commend and reward teachers and school heads who demonstrate excellence in the work of an education professional. The DepEd Regional Office aims to :

1. Promote recognition, respect and appreciation of teachers;
2. Stimulate interest in teaching as a career; and
3. Promote quality teaching and enhance teacher professionalism.

The qualities of being an outstanding are manifold and the most important qualities are passion, leadership, classroom management, and content knowledge.

Among those qualities that can be attributed by educators, we strongly believe that passion, leadership, classroom management, and knowledge of content are conducive to becoming highly efficient and effective. Teachers are effective, thus it enables students to reach their goals and realize their potential. Ultimately, effective teachers have the ability to influence students in schools and within communities; this is where leadership skills and determination manifest.
